Matt Silver receives Illinois REALTORS® Political Involvement Award

SPRINGFIELD, IL — Illinois REALTORS® Treasurer Matt Silver, of Chicago, has received the Illinois REALTORS® Political Involvement Award. He is a partner and senior broker with Corcoran Urban Real Estate in Chicago.

The award is given to individuals for outstanding political and legislative service to the REALTOR® organization. The announcement was made at the Illinois REALTORS® Capitol Conference in Springfield on March 29.

The award honors Illinois REALTORS® for achievements and excellence in political and grassroots involvement. Silver was honored for his work as a champion for REALTOR® advocacy at both the state and federal level.

He serves on both the Illinois REALTORS® and National Association of REALTORS® Board of Directors and has chaired state and national committees, including those with a political focus. He currently serves on NAR's RPAC Trustees Fundraising Committee and is a longtime Federal Political Coordinator and State Legislative Contact.

Silver sets an advocacy example by taking his work as a Federal Political Coordinator to the next level by maintaining strong communication with his Congressional representative to make sure REALTOR® issues are at the forefront.

He is a past president of the Chicago Association of REALTORS®, was named its 2018 REALTOR® of the Year and received its 2013 REALTOR® Achievement Award.

Illinois REALTORS® is a voluntary trade organization representing more than 50,000 members engaged in all facets of the real estate industry. In addition to serving the professional needs of its members, the association works to protect the rights of private property owners in the state by recommending and promoting legislation that safeguards and advances the interest of real property ownership.
